Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

GK Wealth Management is required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. Information is applicable to this Item and it can be found through the Broker Check website by FINRA. Here is the link --- <https://brokercheck.finra.org/individual/summary/6388640>

Mr. Kirsch has 2 discharges. These were from the same incident, as Mr. Kirsch was ‘duly registered’ with a broker-dealer AND Registered Investment Advisor at time of discharge. Violation of firm policy regarding social media and private security transactions.

In addition, GK Wealth Management was subject to an order and consent related to the 2 discharges by the State of Nevada and placed on heightened supervision for 24 months (4/1/19 - 4/1/2021).

Item 4- Other Business Activities

The Firm is required to disclose any outside business activities that are investment related or that provide a substantial source of income or involve a substantial amount of time. Mr. Kirsch is currently affiliated with an insurance company called Griffin M. Kirsch, LLC (DBA: GK Insurance Group), which engages in life insurance, long term care insurance, health insurance, disability insurance and annuities. The client will be informed of any potential conflicts that may arise and the Firm will not engage with any client where such conflict exists.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

GK Wealth Management is required to disclose any additional compensation for providing advisory services received from anyone who is not a client. This would include sales awards or any bonus based on number of sales. No information is applicable to this Item.

Mr. Kirsch may also receive incentive-based non-cash compensation in the form of additional compensation or reimbursement arrangements which may include payments in connection with events, conferences or seminars, sales or training programs, trips (which may include travel, lodging and meals), and/or in the form of entertainment, merchandise or other benefits. While non-cash compensation programs are designed to encourage IARs and to consider and recommend certain products of investments, the conferences, seminars and training programs provided by such non-cash compensation arrangements help IARs stay current with changing products and economic issues. Such training may ultimately position IARs with resources to help serve their clients' financial needs. Although non-cash compensation payments may create a conflict of interest, based on current fiduciary and suitability standards, Mr. Kirsch is required to make recommendations appropriate to each client's individual needs and objectives.

Item 6- Supervision

At GK Wealth Management each client has a primary adviser to ensure that all advice provided to clients is monitored. Investment Advisory Representative (IAR) Griffin Kirsch (775-354-6622) is responsible for supervising GK Wealth Management's advisory activities.

Mr. Kirsch is supervised through a compliance program designed to prevent and detect violations of the federal and state securities laws. Supervision is conducted by the Chief Compliance Officer, Griffin Kirsch, who is responsible for administering the policies and procedures. Mr. Kirsch reviews those policies and procedures annually for their adequacy and the effectiveness of their implementation.

Mr. Kirsch also utilizes an outside consulting firm to allow for additional oversight of business practices.

Item 7- Requirements for State Registered Advisors

Mr. Kirsch has not been the subject of the entry of any award and has not been found liable in an arbitration claim or a civil, self regulatory organization or administrative proceeding alleging damages in excess of $2,500, involving an investment or an investment-related business or activity; fraud, false statements, or omissions; theft, embezzlement, or other wrongful taking of property; bribery, forgery, counterfeiting, or extortion; or dishonest, unfair, or unethical practices. Mr. Kirsch has never been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
